Chesterfield Mixed League:

The winner of the league will represent Chesterfield FC in the English Football League Utilita Mixed Cup U11's national competition and the 2nd place team will represent the Chesterfield district in the English Schools Football Association U11's Mixed Cup.

The event will see the teams competing in fixtures days against other schools to get their best points per game ratio. The top 8 teams will progress through to the final's day. Fixtures days will take place at 3 sites with schools required to attend a minimum of 2 fixtures days to enter the league.

Chesterfield Girls League:

The winner of the league will represent Chesterfield FC in the Premier League Primary Stars U11's Girls Cup national competition and the 2nd place team will represent the Chesterfield district in the English Schools Football Association U11's Girls Cup.

The event will see the teams competing in fixtures days against other schools to get their best points per game ratio. The top 8 teams will progress through to the final's day. Fixtures days will take place at 3 sites with schools required to attend a minimum of 2 fixtures days to enter the league.

Other Rules:

Fixture days are at capacity with 6 mixed teams and 6 girls' teams. In an event when the spaces on a fixture day are not full, schools can add a second team to either the mixed or the girl's competition. In an event when there is only 1 team booked onto the fixture day in either the girls or the mixed competition, they will receive an automatic 2 for their points per game based of a 6 team round robin (3 wins, 3 draws and 0 losses).
